

The Lost Dog

By Heidi Crowter

Lucy was exhausted she heard a dog shouting for help. Lucy rushed over to where some crumbly rocks were and started to climb a steep and crumbly massive hill. The voice of the dog came nearer and after a long time of climbing Lucy managed to reach the top of the hill. There was Ben hanging and Lucy grabbed onto Bens collar but Ben pushed Lucy down the steep steep hill and she lost her grip on Bens collar and there they were hanging waiting for rescue.